

Astral at Auburn Hires Experienced Director of Nursing

Dawn Hyde will oversee clinical operations for the new DeKalb County senior living community.

AUBURN, IND., UNITED STATES, December 8, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Astral at Auburn, a Franciscan Advisory Services senior living community, has hired Dawn Hyde as its new Director of Nursing.

The community, which is located at 1675 W. 7th Street in Auburn, Ind., provides independent living, assisted living and memory care for older adults.

Hyde began overseeing clinical operations at Astral this fall and brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the position.

"The staff at Astral strives to provide the same care we'd want our loved ones to receive," Hyde said. "I am proud to be a part of such a beautiful community that offers professional, compassionate and empathetic care to so many seniors."

For nearly two decades, Hyde has worked in nursing at senior living communities in Auburn and the surrounding areas. She began her career as a CNA, and then went on to earn her LPN and RN licenses, and accepted clinical leadership roles to advance her career.

Hyde earned associate degrees in nursing from Ivy Tech Community College and ITT Technical Institute. She also holds certificates in gerontological nursing, wound care and infection prevention.

"Dawn has been a wonderful addition to the team at Astral," said Executive Director Amanda Palace. "She is passionate about quality resident care, and the families and residents have already let me know how much of a difference she makes in their lives. We are beyond fortunate
