SCOTTSDALE, AZ, UNITED STATES, December 9, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Scottsdale

Injury Lawyers recently published their latest public safety study about the dangers of drinking and driving around Arizona and found the cities with the highest rates of drunk driving around Maricopa County.

Maricopa County has the vast majority of wrecks. The county had 2,834 alcohol-related crashes in 2020, leading to 1,730 injured people and 81 deaths. The economic loss due to the fatalities is estimated to be $1.7 billion while the economic loss due to suspected serious injuries was estimated at $276 million.

Additionally, the study also found the holidays that Maricopa County saw the highest number of fatal drunk driving accidents in 2020. This shows that despite the COVID-19 pandemic that drunk driving accidents were not reduced because of the pandemic. While people were driving less this was the largest increase since 2007.

Maricopa County witnessed several deadly holidays in 2020. Holidays with the most fatal crashes were:

Thanksgiving—12 fatal crashes and 4 alcohol-related fatal crashes;
Memorial Day—11 fatal crashes and 4 alcohol-related fatal crashes;
Labor Day—10 fatal crashes and 2 alcohol-related fatal crashes; and Christmas—10 fatal crashes and 1 alcohol-related fatal crash.
