Jim Anderson, CEO of Lattice Semiconductor has been announced as a "Top 100 Innovation CEO - 2021" by World Biz Magazine.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM,
December 9, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/
-- World Biz Magazine Annual Awards

Jim Anderson, CEO of Lattice Semiconductor has been selected by the Judges of World Biz Magazine's annual awards to be a recipient of the Top 100 Innovation CEOs Award - 2021. This selection follows a stringent process that evaluated over 40,000 nominees to select the exclusive list of 100 winners.

Thank you to World Biz Magazine for this recognition and to the entire Lattice team for their dedication making Lattice the technology innovation leader we are today.”

Jim Anderson, CEO of Lattice Semiconductor

Jim Anderson is Lattice Semiconductor’s President and Chief Executive Officer and serves on the company’s Board of Directors. He joined Lattice in September 2018 and focused the company on its mission as the leader in low power programmable solutions. Since then, the company accelerated its cadence of innovative product introductions and achieved record profitability.

Prior to joining Lattice, Jim served as the senior vice president and general manager of AMD’s Computing and Graphics business group, where he was responsible for global sales, marketing, and engineering. While at AMD, Jim drove a transformation that brought disruptive new products to market and generated industry-leading revenue growth. Prior to AMD, Jim held a broad range of leadership positions spanning general management, engineering, sales, marketing, and corporate strategy at companies including Intel, Broadcom (formerly Avago Technologies), and LSI Corporation.

Jim serves on the Board of Directors of Sierra Wireless, a leader in edge-to-cloud solutions. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Semiconductor Industry Association, as well as the MIT Sloan Americas Executive Board and the Dean's Advisory Board for the College of Science and Engineering at the University of Minnesota. Jim was previously a member of the Board of Directors of Qylur Intelligent Systems, a privately held AI/IoT security systems company.

Jim holds an MBA and Master of Science in electrical engineering and computer science from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, a Master of Science in electrical engineering from Purdue University, and a Bachelor of Science in electrical engineering from the University of Minnesota. He holds four patents for innovations in computer architecture.

Jim Anderson commented, "Thank you to World Biz Magazine for this recognition and to the entire Lattice team for their dedication making Lattice the technology innovation leader we are today. The Lattice team is absolutely amazing, and their innovative spirit drives us and allows us to bring incredible technology to our thousands of customers every day."
