Garibaldi-Meucci Museum, Staten Island We are delighted to announce that our short film:

SACCO & VANZETTI: BURN was an 'official selection' and FINALIST AWARD WINNER in 2020/21.

"Beyond the Curve International Film Festival by our esteemed jury panel. We have especially curated a section with your film on our website. We, the BCIFF team, are extremely happy to have your project selected as 'official selection' in our festival. We extend heartiest congratulations to the entire team. Well, we guess some celebrations are in order". William Carlos Williams Center, + Passaic County College with the American Labor Museum Botto House. with five revivals over 12 years in our repertory.

Originally SACCO was dedicated to the memory of Giussppe Antonio Basso, my Grandfather. He emigrated from Italy to America and experienced the fear surrounding SACCO & VANZETTI first hand. As did my Mother as a young child. They all lived during the Red Scare as well. My Mother was told never to speak Italian in public in the 1920's to not become a target in that anti-Italian immigrant period. Does anyone remember today.
