EINPresswire.com/ -- The antiques experts at Kovels.com have 10 great gift ideas—and one bonus idea—to make holiday gift-giving easier and more personal. (Shhhhhh—don't tell until all the presents are opened!) Here are 10 ideas based on current buying trends and tried-and-true gifts.

1. Vintage jewelry is always appreciated. A Bakelite bracelet is one idea. Bakelite prices are less expensive this year and it's coming back in fashion.
2. A cast iron doorstop. Practical and useful, it can be anything from a cute dog to a vase of flowers.

Some of Kovels' holiday gift ideas: Bakelite bangle bracelets, glass paperweight, cast iron flower basket doorstop, and Hermes silk scarf

3. For an older friend or relative, find some 1950s or 1960s cookie cutters to remind them of the ones they used when they were younger or to create new memories. Look for metal cutters with handles or vibrantly colored plastic examples.
4. Card games are back! Look for an old deck of cards with interesting pictures, or interesting graphics on a vintage card game.
5. Woven tablecloth for holiday parties. If they are woven, they are less likely to need ironing.
6. Paperweight. They come in all sizes and prices with varied decorations by many notable makers.

7. Colorful glass flower vase from 1960s. Look for glass by Fenton, Fostoria or other makers.
8. Cut glass pickle dish. Cut glass is a bargain right now and it still looks good on the table, especially filled with holiday treats.
9. Vintage silk pictorial scarf.
10. Kovels' favorite gift of all—Kovels' Antiques & Collectibles Price Guide 2022. Kovels is offering it with a bookplate autographed author Terry Kovel herself, and the latest fakes booklet.

And now the bonus: Gift a membership to Kovels.com.
