PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, December 9, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- In 2011 if you asked the Antonio Hayward better known by his moniker Tony’ Jones would he be here at D’ Cafe celebrating the opening ceremony of his first housing development for Veterans the answer would be yes.

Approximately a decade ago Tony’ had the vision to develop quality housing for Veterans. The path to the finish line wasn’t paved with many obstacles and set backs. However, the son of a distinguished Military Veteran George C Smith stayed on the course and literally fully removed the three unit dwelling brick by brick.

“I almost walked away several times during the process. Some of the obstacles that came up against me made me question the venture. As I continued the process, I put the outcome in Gods hands and he walked me to the finish line. With every obstacle seem to come with a blessing and here we are today”. Tony’ Jones.

“

I put it all in Gods hands”
