Fahari Law can help you claim maximum compensation after developing an illness due to Paraquat exposure.

The "You Care, We Care" campaign is aimed to help those who might have unknowingly been exposed to Paraquat, a poisonous compound that is typically used as an herbicide to get rid of grasses and weeds in no-till farming methods. If you or somebody you know has been exposed to Paraquat, Farahi Law Firm offers free legal and medical assistance.

This Paraquat campaign provides legal help to every person who has been exposed to Paraquat so they get the money they need for treatment and lost income, & to improve their overall quality of life”

Many studies have shown that Paraquat is highly toxic and can lead to permanent organ damage and disability, including Parkinson's Disease. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the long-term consequences of Paraquat exposure can result in damage to vital organ systems, especially the lungs, heart, and kidneys. In cases of prolonged or large amounts of Paraquat ingested over time, patients are not expected to live long without medical treatment.

"Our goal is to help people who have been exposed to Paraquat and have fallen ill because of it to get the medical treatment they need and the money they deserve. Many of those who have been exposed to this deadly weed killer hesitate to seek help and file a claim because they are intimidated by the financial repercussions of doing so. We have lawyers, doctors, and case managers on standby 24/7 to assist," says Atty. Justin Farahi, lead counsel for Farahi Law Firm and 2021 Lawyer of the Year*

People most at-risk for Paraquat poisoning are farmers, landscapers, and agricultural workers.

"This campaign is intended to provide legal assistance to every person who has been exposed to Paraquat so they get the money they need for treatment, lost income, and to improve their overall quality of life," adds Atty. Farahi.

Paraquat is not illegal in the U.S., and users are only given caution about its use. Current government-issued warnings about Paraquat are all placing the burden of protection on the population's shoulders: where humans are advised to be careful about using this toxic substance instead of totally prohibiting its use.

Because of its commercial indication, it is the people who work in these settings who are the most at-risk for Paraquat poisoning or developing debilitating diseases from prolonged exposure. Particularly exposed are those who mix, load, and apply paraquat, as well as those who live in or near areas where this chemical is being applied.

Persons who are most at-risk for Paraquat poisoning are:

- Farmers, agricultural workers, landscapers
- Anybody who works with commercial-grade pesticides containing Paraquat
- Residents of rural areas located near farmlands that use Paraquat

"When you have been diagnosed with Parkinson's Disease due to exposure to Paraquat, you might not know that you can assert your right to get medical treatment and claim monetary compensation. It is essential that you file a Paraquat claim immediately. Farahi Law Firm has a dedicated team of legal professionals, doctors, and case managers who can help you through
