/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Mobile Deployable Communications

Conference, taking place on the 26th and 27th January 2022 in London, UK, is the leading conference in Europe dedicated to CIS requirements, and will bring together international experts from military, government and industry to explore the latest developments in communications technology.

Interested parties are advised to register soon in order not to miss this unique and highly valuable learning and networking opportunity. Register at <http://www.mobiledeployable.com/pr5>.

SMi Group has released the highlights for the upcoming Mobile Deployable Communications Conference:

- As the leading conference dedicated to enhancing tactical communications capabilities, the two-day conference will explore the greatest challenges and next-generation solutions that are enabling infantry to communicate in today's and tomorrow's battlefields

- Delegates will hear exclusive updates on SatCom on the move, software-defined radios, ground terminals and network-enabled capabilities, standardising C4ISR networks, building tactical CIS networks and maximising data telemetry resiliency, operational feedback, research and development, and more

The poster features a soldier in full combat gear, including a helmet and goggles, sitting in a desert environment. He is holding a mobile phone to his ear and has a laptop open on his lap. The background is a hazy, rocky landscape. The text on the poster is as follows:
