Growth Prospects:

The packaging sector has been attempting to gain momentum in the past couple of years on the back of the massive boom of the e-commerce industry. The market growth will be credited to the e-commerce transport and shipment, personal care, household, food and beverage, and healthcare sectors for convenience packaging.

These aspects have pushed leading players to dedicate their resources towards new packaging designs or to reinvent existing packaging designs to accommodate higher convenience and manageability, which will drive the global Hydrogenated MDI market growth. The vintage packaging sector is also experiencing high demand, and even though it targets a limited consumer base, it is expected to grow at a rapid pace in the coming years.
