

The Space Force Association Partners with Deloitte to Launch New Public Website

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, December 14, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Space Force Association (SFA) recently launched a new public-facing website developed by Deloitte Digital, a practice within Deloitte Consulting LLP. SFA brings together space professionals from the military, civil, commercial, and academic communities. Member diversity enables properly connected U.S. space policy and strategy analysis to the realities of physics and engineering that make space operations unique. SFA is the premier professional military and space education association in the nation, dedicated to United States dominance in space, a strong national defense, and support for the men and women of the U.S. Space Force.

"Deloitte proudly supports those that serve and protect our country. It was an honor to apply the digital services we provide to Commercial and Government clients to the Space Force Association to create an exceptionally informative website. We look forward to continuing our partnership with SFA and its members as we collectively address the opportunities in the Space domain." Diane Ashley, Managing Director.

Bill Wolf, Col. USAF (Ret.)

The SFA's website is the premiere connection and communication tool for the public and more specifically the member portal is specifically designed to provide in-depth information and access to additional related interviews and other space related research.

Our corporate partners make it possible to not only support the Space Force but to provide scholarships and other learning opportunities. We deeply appreciate Deloitte's commitment to the SFA mission."
