

Hollywood Disclosure created by Serena DC Joins Pluto TV

The Emmy nominated series is now available for streaming.

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, December 13, 2021 / EINPresswire.com/ -- International TV star and producer Serena DC's hit series Hollywood Disclosure will air on Pluto TV on December 13th, 2021.

Pluto TV has added the hit Emmy nominated series to their catalog. Hollywood Disclosure is a documentary series created and hosted by Serena DC that looks at the dark side of fame and the human side of celebrity. Hollywood Disclosure takes viewers on a journey as guests share never before heard stories of deeply personal moments in their lives that pushed them to their limits and taught them their most important life lessons. Season 1 features Caitlyn Jenner, Deepak Chopra, Corey Feldman, Tara Reid, Colin Egglesfield, and Daniel Goddard. Hollywood Disclosure aims to inspire viewers to know that everyone is battling something and what appears on the outside isn't always as it seems.

"Coming off the heels of 2020, humanity suffered a really big trauma. I want Hollywood Disclosure to be a comfort to people at home," says Serena. "With this in mind, I aim to create TV shows that inspire people to do more, be more and give more. I want to encourage and uplift everyone watching."

Serena DC is an Australian TV star, screenwriter, executive producer. She is also a member of the Television Academy in the USA. Over the last few years, Serena has worked in many roles in front and behind the camera. Serena is on a mission to bring stories of personal transformation and inspiration to the world.
