meaningful lyrics, melody and vocals stand out in her track Love to the World which is a collaboration with Top American-Mexican Producer Big Chris Flores who has worked with artists such as Fergie, Slash and Rihanna.

The video for Love to the World features Capoeira, a Brazilian art of movement which blends martial arts, acrobatics, dance and music. Capoeira was conceived in Africa and born in Brazil, developed by the African people in Brazil fuelled by their desire for freedom and as a mechanism for resistance against their oppressors. It was also a way to create community and unity for themselves.

This spring 2021, Rosita made a splash on many of Mexico's largest media, TV and radio networks including Grupo Radio Centro and La Octava TV with "Adoro", her breathtaking tribute to Mexico's superstar composer Armando Manzanero.

Rosita Stone is an award-winning multilingual artist, songwriter, producer and dancer from Mexican and Russian-Ukrainian roots. She's opened concerts for multiple Grammy star Carlos Vives and performed with Michael Bublé. Rosita has a background in Nutritional Biochemistry and resides outside of Toronto with her daughter and six rescued animals and enjoys hiking, nature and sitting in front of her wood stove with a cozy blanket and ginger tea. Stone is rising from the ashes of tragedy which took the life of her husband and father of her only child. Her unstoppable will to manifest her dreams is clear, and she is on her way. Look out for new music coming out in 2022!
