Spirometer Market

“

Spirometer Market by Type (Hand-Held and Table-Top), Technology (Volume Measurement and Flow Measurement), Application (Asthma, COPD and others), and End User (Hospitals and Clinics, Home Healthcare)”

Allied Market Research

Increase in incidences of respiratory diseases, technological advancements in spirometers, and growth in geriatric population drive the global spirometer market. On the other hand, lack of awareness regarding respiratory diseases and availability of substitutes for spirometer impede the market growth. However, growing preference for home healthcare and impact of covid-19 on the market create new opportunities in the coming years.
