

Raising The Bar in Hip Hop and R&B: Chicago's New Hip Hop Queen J-Ma Drops New Single

Rising through ranks in the Hip Hop scene, talented artist J-Ma is driven to soothe and heal, with her beautiful new single, "RAIN DON'T FADE ME NONE".

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, December 27, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A dynamic rapper-songwriter from Chicago, J-Ma is set to become the authentic voice of people, while building her brand as the undisputed Hip Hop queen. Breaking into the scene with a new single, "RAIN DON'T FADE ME NONE", the eclectic artist brings an evocative and sensory mix of rhythms and lyricism.

Having released on June 11th, 2021, penned down by J-Ma and produced by Acexlegends Beats, "RAIN DON'T FADE ME NONE" showcases the artist's brilliance and uniqueness as a seasoned lyricist. Narrating pertinent and moving messages through her raw, emotive, and touching compositions, J-Ma embraces music as a form of freedom and medicine for the soul.

My music is unique because I am a versatile songwriter and an emcee. I write from my heart and my pain. Hoping that her newest release pierces through the hearts and minds of listeners, J-Ma remains motivated by the rhythm of the music, her family's support, and by the many people around the world, who remain connected by similar experiences.

A relatable and enriching composition, "RAIN DON'T FADE ME NONE" is set to heal listeners, showcasing J-Ma's critical message that you can always rise beyond the pain, fighting through all odds.

Rapping in a men-only zone in underground hip-hop cyphers in Chicago where she earned the name 16 bar queen, J-Ma has been opening act in several local hip-hop shows and headlined music performing events. Inspired by her father Lee Shields (r.i.p), the artist remains focused in her plan to keep making good music and reach the top of the charts.
