Bleumi Pay Now Supports Quickbooks and Wyre for Payments and Payouts on the Algorand Blockchain

BOSTON, MA, USA, December 16, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bleumi Pay Now Supports Quickbooks and Wyre for Payments and Payouts on the Algorand Blockchain

Bleumi is pleased to announce its integration with Wyre, a leading cryptocurrency infrastructure provider, to support payments and payouts on the Algorand blockchain. Wyre is a registered MSB with the US Government and maintains a network of MTL's which allow partners to operate in the US in a fully compliant manner, with no need for licensing and compliance setup.

We are really excited about the Wyre Integration, this enables us to focus on our vision to make payments simple for our customers with the option to accept payment and payouts in fiat or crypto.”

Thomas Arul, CEO, and Co-Founder of Bleumi.

With the Bleumi-Wyre integration, E-Commerce merchants and B2B businesses can accept either FIAT or Cryptocurrency payments from customers and receive the money in FIAT (USD, EUR, etc.,) or Crypto, directly into their registered bank account or wallet.

“We are really excited about the Wyre Integration, this enables us to focus on our vision to make payments simple for our customers with options to accept payment and payouts in fiat or crypto.”, said Thomas Arul, CEO, and Co-Founder of Bleumi. “Wyre is essential to ensure high-value transactions are compliant, especially for NFT marketplaces and B2B.”

"Our partnership with Bleumi will enable the ability to bridge the gap between eCommerce merchants and B2B businesses, and the use of traditional and crypto payment rails," said Ioannis Giannaros, CEO of Wyre. "Having worked closely with Algorand over recent months, we are delighted that Wyre is positioned as the leading fiat to crypto provider in the vibrant Algorand ecosystem."

"The integration of Bleumi and Wyre means that anyone looking to implement an e-commerce payment solution now has ultimate flexibility to both accept payments and receive payouts in the currency of their choosing, be it fiat or crypto," said David Markley, director of business solutions at Algorand. "This optionality on both ends is essential for driving mass adoption and broad financial inclusion, and it's exciting to see solutions like this coming together within the Algorand ecosystem."
