New York Photography Awards announced the list of 2021 winners, to the public, honoring, recognizing, and promoting outstanding photographers worldwide.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES,
December 16, 2021 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- New York Photography Awards announced the list of 2021 winners, to the public, honoring, recognizing, and promoting outstanding photographers worldwide, whom shared their vision with the world, through the lenses that portray the beauty of immutable reality, along with the dichotomy of Big Apple's panorama.

Kenjo Ong, CEO of IAA

In light of that, more than 3,000 photographic entries were submitted in its inaugural year, from over 50 countries worldwide, including: United States, Italy, United Kingdom, Germany, South Africa, France, Australia, Netherlands, Spain, Poland, Taiwan, and Austria, to name a few. These entrants have proudly represented their country, yielding a diversified assemblage of photographers within the 2021 awards.

“We're truly astonished by the fact that many amazing photographers worldwide submitted their one-of-a-kind photographs in the awards,” exclaimed Kenjo Ong, CEO of IAA. “With the various available categories that New York Photography Awards offers, we were able to honor the efforts and time that was put into capturing these images, as well as bestow upon them the accolades they truly deserve.”

Grand Jury Panel

With the multitudinous entries, New York Photography Awards has ranked them, via blind judging, in accordance to the industry's best standards, based on the creative messages and
