

Osmosis Receives Best Company Culture, Best CEO Awards

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, USA, December 17, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Osmosis.org, the leading health education platform that empowers millions of current and future clinicians and caregivers worldwide with the best learning experience possible, has been awarded the following awards by Comparably, a leading workplace culture and compensation monitoring site: Best Company Culture 2021 and Best CEO 2021.

This recognition follows awards for Best Company Culture & Best CEOs for Diversity and Women, as well as Best Company Leadership, Work-Life Balance, and Happiness in 2020. (<https://www.comparably.com/companies/osmosis/awards>)

Osmosis was recently acquired by Elsevier, a global leader in information and analytics. Elsevier received 11 Comparably awards this year, including Best Company for Diversity, Women, and Culture, Best CEO, Best Work-Life Balance, and Best Company for Women.

"Osmosis is an amazing company to work for," said Elizabeth Lucas, Senior Content Manager at Osmosis. "I feel valued and respected each day and Osmosis takes great care in cultivating a strong team spirit despite working remotely all over the world. Through both small and large gestures, even my six-year-old son knows, 'Wow! Osmosis really cares about you!'"

"The Osmosis team joined Elsevier only a short time ago and has already made an impact in our organization. Their caring, open, and trust-centered culture, led by a visionary and empathetic CEO, has created such a positive company experience. These are cultural values we also share and aspire to at Elsevier. We are delighted to have Shiv and the Osmosis team as part of the Global Medical Education family, and look forward to learning from each other,” said Elizabeth Munn, Managing Director, Global Medical Education, Elsevier.

About Elsevier

As a global leader in information and analytics, Elsevier helps researchers and healthcare professionals advance science and improve health outcomes for the benefit of society. We do this by facilitating insights and critical decision-making for customers across the global research and health ecosystems.

In everything we publish, we uphold the highest standards of quality and integrity. We bring that same rigor to our information analytics solutions for researchers, health professionals, institutions and funders.

Elsevier employs 8,100 people worldwide. We have supported the work of our research and health partners for more than 140 years. Growing from our roots in publishing, we offer knowledge and valuable analytics that help our users make breakthroughs and drive societal progress. Digital solutions such as ScienceDirect, Scopus, SciVal, ClinicalKey and Sherpath support strategic research management, R&D performance, clinical decision support, and health education. Researchers and healthcare professionals rely on our 2,500+ digitized journals, including The Lancet and Cell; our 40,000 eBook titles; and our iconic reference works, such as Gray's Anatomy. With the Elsevier Foundation and our external Inclusion & Diversity Advisory Board, we work in partnership with diverse stakeholders to advance inclusion and diversity in science, research and healthcare in developing countries and around the world.

Elsevier is part of RELX, a global provider of information-based analytics and decision tools for professional and business customers. www.elsevier.com

About Comparably

Comparably (<http://www.comparably.com>) is a leading workplace culture and compensation monitoring site that provides the most comprehensive and accurate representation of what it's like to work at companies. Employees can anonymously rate their employers in 20 workplace culture categories, providing the public a transparent and in-depth look at the experiences different segments of workers have based on gender, ethnicity, age, department, tenure, location, education, and company size. Since launching in 2016, Comparably has accumulated 10 million ratings on 60,000 U.S. companies. The platform has become one of the fastest-growing SaaS solutions for employer branding and a trusted third-party site for workplace and salary data, most notably for its annual Best Places to Work series.
