

The most skilled Peruvian craftsmanship arrives to Los Angeles "just in time for Christmas".

In Culver City, the work of 20 of the most outstanding Peruvian artisans coming to Los Angeles for those wishing to give meaningful gifts from Peru

CULVER CITY, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, December 19, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- From Friday, December 17 at 6 pm to 8 pm and throughout the weekend, an event promoted by Peru Gift Shop will be held in which the work of more than 20 Peruvian artisans and designers will be exhibited in Los Angeles California just in time for Christmas.

Peruvian Artisan Arturo Ramos handmade gifts

The encounter will be at the "Ceviche Stop" restaurant, by the famous Peruvian Chef Walter Adrianzen, who will also delight visitors with his successful dishes of Peruvian gastronomy. The establishment is located at 2901 S La Cienega Blvd Culver City CA. 90232.

It is an honor to promote our artisans and their projects in a city as important as Los Angeles. Our mission is to promote Peruvian talent, as well as the socio-economic development of Peru”

Evelyn Brooks

This event promotes the diffusion of Peru thanks to its handicrafts and handmade products and is driven by the company Peru Gift Shop, which is dedicated to finding Peruvian talent that produces quality artisanal items to support them and generate an impact with each purchase and has the support of the Commercial Office of Peru in Los Angeles.

The handcrafted pieces that will be exhibited are unique and include peltry, textiles, jewelry, and dolls made with alpaca wool, among others. In addition, products from designers such as Meche Correa, Varignia Garcia, Colca Fabrics as well as the most outstanding Peruvian artisans will be presented, including Victor Yares, master in filigree work and winner of competitions of the Patronato de la Plata, as well as Arturo Ramos, renowned Peruvian retablist and the innovative work of emerging designers such as Awki Alpaca, Kathya Mejia, Belle Alpaca, and others.
