EDINA, MN, USA, December 20, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Comprehensive financial planning, retirement planning, and wealth management firm MTI Financial Advisors is celebrating new team members Christopher Bayliss and Thomas Scheck's fruitful first year as financial advisors on staff. Bayliss and Scheck joined MTI at the end of 2020 after a history of success in the legal and financial industries, respectively.

MTI congratulates its new members on their recent contributions and looks forward to their growth and future within the company."

Company Representative

Christopher Bayliss is the son of MTI's longtime Financial Executive James Bayliss. Before becoming a financial advisor, Bayliss served as an intellectual property lawyer for over five years, working for law firms Dykema Gossett PLLC and Schwegman Lundberg & Woessner, P.A.

He also worked as a mechanical engineer for Motorola Solutions, Inc. and GN ReSound before pursuing law. Today, Bayliss applies his skills in analysis and knowledge of portfolio due diligence to help clients manage their finances wisely and efficiently.

Before joining MTI, Thomas Scheck worked for three years at Ameriprise, one of the largest financial planning companies in the United States. Scheck is also an active leader in the local community. He frequently conducts educational seminars teaching adults about pre-retirement planning and wealth management.

Scheck brings his unique combination of clear insight and knowledge of securities to educate clients about their available options while transitioning into retirement.

MTI congratulates its new members on their recent contributions and looks forward to their growth and future within the company.
