

Enchanted Fairies Announces $1 Million in Total Donations to Kidd's Kids Children's Charity Organization

The total donations mark the first for Enchanted Fairies in raising $1 million to a single non-profit organization

PLANO, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, December 20, 2021 / EINPresswire.com/ -- Enchanted Fairies is pleased to announce it has surpassed the $1 million mark in total donations to Kidd's Kids, a non-profit which takes terminal children and those with life-altering conditions, as well as their families, to Walt Disney World.

Founded by Aileen Avikova, Enchanted Fairies, a fine art portrait studio, was founded with a passion and focus on creating fully immersive and long-lasting artwork and experiences for children, via magical photography sessions. With children at the forefront of its initiatives, the company has amassed over $1 million toward children's charities, nationwide.

Kidd's Kids is currently celebrating 30 years of bringing hope and happiness to children suffering from terminal and life-altering conditions. Its founder, Kidd Kraddick, formed the non-profit organization in 1991 after being inspired to help children. The Enchanted Fairies is a luxury fine art portrait studio that provides a magical, immersive experience for children of all ages. It has donated over $1 million to children's charities nationwide. To learn more about the Enchanted Fairies experience, visit <https://enchanted-fairies.com>

About Kidd's Kids

Kidd Kraddick founded Kidd's Kids in 1991 with a dream to make a difference in the lives of children and their families who were dealing with life-altering or life-threatening conditions. Since 1991, the charity has sent over 1000 kids and their families on a trip of a lifetime to Walt Disney World in Orlando, Florida. Our goal is to continue to grow that number each year.
