Guests are not far away watching a stage, they are right upfront. "You are right there with miracles happening before your eyes, just feet away!" said Jonathan Todd, CEO of the production company Hotel Magic LLC, parent of The Magical Mystery Show! "Tickets are limited to less than 60 guests a show to provide close-up miracles, laughter, and the joys of a bygone era," said Marty Alexander, COO. "Guests participate in the show and enjoy the childlike wonder created by miraculous feats of prestidigitation. Guests are amazed and leave with the lines between fantasy and reality thoroughly blurred!" Said Brian Lynx, VP of Hotel Operations and Events, "The big challenge was COVID with this intimate experience and we have solved for that in innovative and comfortably elegant ways. Guests will finally enjoy close-up shows while feeling safe and protected."

The Magical Mystery Show! takes you through a "portal" back in time into the styles of the Victorian era. Back then, the parlors in America and Across the Pond were beehives of social relations allowing the well-heeled in society to interact, relax, dine, and most importantly, enjoy the arts. The Parlor Magician was the King of Entertainment during these golden years. Now... he's back! "You'll need a password to enter our shows. Not to worry, it is printed on your ticket", said Todd. New shows are opening in new venues regularly. They also close out and our featured magicians move around venues. "Because our shows hold under 60 guests, they regularly sell out well in advance. Plan ahead for your trip to ensure you get tickets far in advance," said Lynx.
