Threats from Cheaper and Less Complex Alternatives Hamper Adoption

Factors, such as ease of use, license and maintenance costs, and cognitive capability, influence end-user organizations' decisions to purchase automation tools such as Blue Prism technology services.

Growing awareness about the distinctive features of popular alternatives to Blue Prism technology services, such as 'Automation Anywhere, is making a negative impact on the growth of the Blue Prism technology services market.

Automation Anywhere remains one of the most sought-after choice of RPA tool for SMEs as it is much cheaper and easier to use than Blue Prism technology services.

Furthermore, the cognitive IQ Bot technology incorporated in Automation Anywhere enables end-users provides end-users with RPA tools amalgamated with more advanced cognitive capabilities, which hampers adoption of Blue Prism technology services, impacting the market growth.
