"I'm honored to introduce the stories of these 13 veteran-entrepreneurs because they demonstrate the unbeatable combination of mutual support and the AART of Leadership skills, which are not only applicable to the entrepreneur world but can also be used to address our nation's growing mental health crisis. I hope each of these stories will inspire you, help you navigate your own entrepreneurial journey, and remind you that you can't do it alone. Once we put the ladder down, and lift each other up, we're indeed stronger together." E. Matthew "Whiz" Buckley, Lieutenant, USN
