While having the benefit of a subject matter expert to facilitate the workshop, participants will also have the unique opportunity to learn from others and acquire some best practices. Participants will benefit from discovering strategies and tips from business professionals of numerous interests.

All workshops are conducted via Zoom to provide participants with an interactive and engaging learning environment. The facilitators provide engaging learning methods to ensure every participant leaves with an enhanced skill set and achieved learning objectives. Addison Solutions Academy provides all the necessary materials for each workshop and a facilitator to conduct the workshop.

Interested parties have two options for registering for workshops. The first option is Virtual Training, which is a set of workshops that have been scheduled throughout the year. These workshops include Positive Leadership, Leading Focus Groups, Introduction to Presentation Skills, Employee Engagement, Succession Planning, and much more! Individuals can visit the website and register for any of the 12 scheduled workshops.

The second option for registration is through Group Training. With Addison Solutions Academy's Training Form, business leaders, human resource professionals, and training professionals can easily request the training. The Academy offers over 50 different workshop topics to include but is not limited to Conflict Resolution, Strategic Planning, Building Better Teams, Advanced Writing, Project Management Fundamentals, Introduction to Lead 6 Sigma, Giving Effective Feedback, Creating A Positive Work Environment, Design Thinking, and so much more! Organizations eager to enhance the skills of their employees can request group training for five or more employees.

To participate in workshops, interested parties can register on Addison Solutions Academy's website to register for their desired workshop. The website provides a list of workshops in various categories, including Business Writing, Communication, Human Resource Management, Project Management, Leadership and Management, and other professional skills.
