VeriKlick LLC, Announces Carl Camden, former President and CEO of Kelly Services joining as a Board Advisor

NEWARK, NJ, UNITED STATES, December 22, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- VeriKlick LLC is pleased to announce Carl Camden, Founder and President, Association of Independent Professionals iPSE-U.S., and the Self-Employed and formerly President and CEO of Kelly Services, a Fortune 500 Workforce Solutions firm joins VeriKlick LLC as a Board Advisor.

Carl has dedicated more than 25 years to advocating for the independent workforce. As President and CEO of Kelly Services, a Fortune 500 workforce solutions firm, he spent his career creating opportunities and seeking justice for independent workers; challenging government, business leaders, and educators to adapt to the future of work; and serving on boards for the Federal Reserve, the Committee for Economic Development/The Conference Board, multiple universities, and numerous think tanks. In 2017 he assembled industry leaders, House members from both parties, and association leaders for an exclusive D.C. event ("Advancing the Social Contract For Gig Economy Workers") that became the genesis for iPSE-U.S. Before joining the corporate world, Carl was a tenured college professor and started and sold his own marketing research firm.

In Carl's Advisory role he will collaborate with VeriKlick LLC Executive Leadership Team bringing his vast industry expertise providing strategic planning and guidance. Carl will also support VeriKlick's marketing strategies to expand VeriKlick's client base and market share.

VeriKlick's Multifactor Authenticated Video Interview platform is designed to enable the secure identification process for qualifying candidates for all types and sizes of organizations, industries, and career positions.
