During the Current Pandemic.

West Palm Beach, FL (December 23, 2021)
– Palm Beach residents gathered during the month of December at local restaurants in support of The Salvation

Army of Palm Beach County's "Five Golden Rings" Holiday Campaign. The celebrations were a collaborative effort with valiant local restaurants and noted Palm Beach philanthropists that desired to help The Salvation Army raise awareness of the organization's humanitarian efforts during the current health pandemic. Each "Golden Ring" emphasized one of the five core values that guide The Salvation Army's philanthropic efforts to "Do The Most Good." These Salvation Army's five values are: Passion, Compassion, Uplifting, Brave, and Trustworthy.

The "Five Golden Rings" Campaign epitomized the popular French Holiday Carol by conveying the Christmas message of love and selfless gift-giving. Apart from enjoying delicious holiday-themed repasts in elegant surroundings, guest enjoyed listening to original fiery compositions of accomplished Flamenco guitarists Eric Hansen and Bob Folse. Dena Lyons, Paula Mikus, Joan Parker, Farley Rentschler, and Camilla Webster respectively served as "Golden Ring"

The “Five Golden Rings” Holiday initiative was made possible by the generosity of several local corporate sponsors including Braman Motorcars, First Horizon Bank, Humana, I-Heart Media, and Love’s Flower Shop. Benefactors included Ambassador Howard and Gretchen Leach, Max and Christine Ansbacher, Lois Pope, David and Merrilee Lundquist, Louis and Helen Nicozisis, Wally and Betsy Turner, and Farley Rentschler.

According to Area Commanders Majors James and Leisa Hall, “the programs, services, and activities, provided by the Salvation Army of Palm Beach County, would not be possible without the generous donors and dedicated volunteers who contribute their time, talent and resources to the service of others. They are the “Golden Rings” of philanthropic love that help The Salvation Army to “Do The Most Good” for those in greatest need and most affected by the pandemic in Palm Beach County.”
