May days be merry and bright, and may all Christmases be full of love and light. When shopping and making vegan holiday cheer, remember, not all vegan claims are made equally. It is common for "vegan" labelled treats to contain ingredients like bone char in sugar, crushed beetles from carmine, animal bones from gelatin, animal anal gland juice and much more unappetizing hidden animal-based ingredients.

The solution? BeVeg - Use verified, audited, and confirmed vegan processes and ingredients. Looking for vegan certified brands and supporting them is key to consumer trust and brand loyalty. BeVeg is the Global Leader in Vegan Certification, as the only ISO ACCREDITED vegan certification standard worldwide.
