Celevideos was founded by Paco López and Cristian González as a way to connect fans with their favorite entertainers and celebrities featuring Puerto Rican and Latin American talent. Offering fans the ability to connect with their favorite musicians, actors, TV personalities, models, influencers, and YouTubers, the platform has grown substantially since it began. The platform was launched during the Covid-19 pandemic as a way to drive income and opportunities for artists and entertainers who suffered setbacks due to canceled events and shows. Since that time, it has gained great recognition as the top video-sharing site for Puerto Rican and Latin American talent. To learn more, visit <https://celevideos.com/>.
