In the new year, Scott Aurich is looking to take his positive attitude as well as his strong work ethic with him, into a market that is looking to hold a lot of opportunity.

Scott Aurich is adamant that he could not do this alone and states his achievement could not be possible without Pacific Sotheby's International Realty. "I attribute much of this success to Pacific Sotheby's International Realty marketing platform and global network, which enables me to collaborate with agents around the country and Mexico, resulting in several successful transactions in our market. Additionally, to my team of exceptional associates including Shelly Klessinger, who has been with me since 2008. Most importantly, I could not achieve this without my clients who have trusted me with handling one of the biggest decisions they make, to which I owe anything and everything I have achieved. Thank you from the bottom of my heart and I hope to be there if you ever need me," Scott Aurich concludes.

When asked what his thoughts are for the new year, he said, "After another year being the #1 Agent in Coronado California with over $100,000,000 in sales in 2021 for the fifth consecutive year, it is easy to just keep doing what I have been doing for the last 30+ years and continue doing whatever I can to exceed my clients' expectations."

"However, my business plan has been primarily based on the relationships that I have built here in Coronado and the referrals from the clients I have helped in the past," continues Aurich. "These relationships, the network of brokers from around the country and the Sotheby's International Realty marketing platform are all tools that provide extraordinary results."
