REACH and RoHS Compliance: Protecting Revenues with Advanced Compliance

REACH, RoHS, and WEEE all present compliance challenges for companies looking to act in accordance with the laws and directives. This seminar will review the basic fundamentals of each regulation and provide a step-by-step process for building internal compliance programs.

Industry standards, third party software, and manual data collection methods will be discussed and a review of part sourcing from distributors, forecasting end of life parts, and managing the bill of material will be included. Attendees will be able to identify risks in their products and supply chains by understanding the impact each regulation has on business and by understanding how and when they need to comply. Students will walk away with a template for the 10 steps to building solid compliance programs.

The seminar will go into the specifics of the REACH and RoHS regulations, provide case studies and share lessons learned so organizations can benefit from the mistakes of others. It will review the latest on both directives and will draw out key developments and key dates (if applicable) with particular emphasis on requirements for US firms.

After completing the virtual seminar, attendees will gain a better understanding of:
