

Standing Up for the Rights Everyone Has Simply Because They Are Human

Across the globe, young members celebrated the 20th anniversary of Youth for Human Rights International on Human Rights Day.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, December 30, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- United for Human Rights (UHR) and Youth for Human Rights International (YHRI) chapters celebrated Human Rights Day 2021 with a parade of events around the globe. Youth and adults participated in marches, petition drives, Zoom conferences, award ceremonies, in-school workshops and other activities aimed at raising awareness of the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) and thus protecting these rights for all people.

From Canada to Colombia, Sierra Leone to France, and Spain to Cameroon, Youth for Human Rights volunteers and like-minded individuals held 130 events in 60 nations. For a snapshot of the kinds of activities these chapters engaged in:

* At a high school in Pennsylvania, 10th-grade students learned about the 30 human rights of the UDHR. They discussed ways to promote and uphold these rights, and collected signatures on a petition to make human rights education mandatory.

Youth for Human Rights Querétaro, Mexico, marched in unity on Human Rights Day.

Bangladesh volunteers marched with a Youth for Human Rights banner and distributed human rights booklets.

* In Mexico, 60 human rights activists, with the support of civic and governmental organizations, marched in the streets of Querétaro, reciting the 30 articles of the UDHR.

* The United for Human Rights group of Erbil, Iraq, aired the Story of Human Rights film and handed out What Are Human Rights? booklets to students.

* An educator in Buenos Aires, Argentina, held a “Human Rights in Times of Pandemic” Zoom conference.

Participants included a pastor from Bolivia and young members of his congregation, who now plan to become leaders in promoting human rights and open their own YHRI group in their country.

* In Sweden, YHRI volunteers, human rights activists and like-minded groups marched together down the rainy streets of Malmö, promoting the 30 human rights, followed by a concert featuring local artists.

Youth for Human Rights International is a nonprofit organization dedicated to making human rights a reality across the globe through its secular educational materials which are made available free of charge, thanks to its main sponsor, the Church of Scientology International.

Those interested in forming a Youth for Human Rights Chapter or using its materials with students should visit: <https://www.youthforhumanrights.org/take-action/groups/how-to-start-a-group.html>.

Human Rights Coordinator
United for Human Rights
+1 323-960-3500

email us here

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

Twitter

Youth for Human Rights Sweden promoted the 30 human rights in a march through Malmö.

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/559530216>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2021 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.