MIAMI, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, January 4, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- INTERprotección, an expert company in insurance, reinsurance, and surety brokerage, could join Formula E to celebrate the 2022 Mexico City E-Prix, which will take place in March at the Autódromo Hermanos Rodríguez.

The great Mexican broker had participated as a sponsor of the race by sharing the vision of betting on new technologies and the importance of taking social responsibility actions with the electric car series in another Formula E event.

The Mexico City E-Prix's next edition defines a social cause that INTERprotección supports. Years ago, Interprotección donated to the ticket office for a reconstruction program of sports facilities located in Xochimilco, affected by the earthquake of September 19.

A claim in which INTERprotección joined with free advice for clients and non-clients, thousands of people doubt how to validate their policies. Likewise, it offered free home insurance for the first two months of hiring and held an auction of legendary pilots' helmets built with Lego pieces to raise funds for reconstruction. One of its directors, Jacobo Bazbaz Sacal, told us.
