

Charles Graueb with Carr, Riggs & Ingram Capital Advisors, LLC (CRI Capital Advisors) Earns Series 79 Registration

MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA, UNITED STATES, January 6, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Charles Graueb, Vice President of Financial Analytics with CRI Capital Advisors, has successfully passed the Series 79 Investment Banking Representative Exam.

Charles will now be assisting the managing directors and investment banking clients with a broad array of transactions. With this new registration, his responsibilities with CRI Capital Advisors will transition to be more inclusive of providing financial analysis and identifying potential sources of capital buyers and sellers.

“The achievement of the Series 79 credential, coupled with Charles’ financial career, further strengthens the CRI Capital Advisors team and expands the depth of our experience and ability to serve our clients,” said Joel Sikes, Partner and Managing Director of CRI Capital Advisors.

CRI Capital Advisors is an investment banking firm that focuses on advising family-owned and closely held companies to prepare, position, and sell. Their goal is to provide support and strategic advice for businesses during the transition period between generations or throughout the extent of an exit plan from one owner to another.
