Landau had a busy 2021 with sold-out shows in Hollywood, Atlantic City, and Las Vegas, plus his annual Home For The Holidays Christmas tour and annual Landau Kid's Joy Toy Drive. He became the face of Adult Education across the country on a billboard and retail campaign with Kroger and CVS following his long-delayed return to school. Landau earned his high school equivalency diploma and subsequently became the face of the "It's Never Too Late To Graduate" campaign spearheaded by West Virginia

Adult Education.

Landau also released his fourth album 'Landau: Live in Las Vegas', with the Cellar Music Group. The tracks were recorded at the Vegas strip's legendary Caesars Palace Casino and Resort and include several new and never-before-recorded songs. The album is filled with Landau's take on the Great American Songbook and classic R&B, all backed by this long-time band, with guest background vocals by former Temptations and Four Tops lead singer Theo Peoples. LANDAU: LIVE IN VEGAS was produced by Ritch Collins, who also helmed Landau's "Christmas Made For Two" holiday collection and was mastered by Jeff Bosley from NPR's 'Mountain Stage.'

Landau has performed several prestigious prior events at The Greenbrier Resort, including the inauguration of Greenbrier owner and West Virginia Governor Jim Justice, but has never hosted a residency with tickets made available to the general public. His dozens of sold-out performances worldwide since winning America's Got Talent a decade ago include tour stops from Shanghai to San Francisco, New York City to Las Vegas, and across Europe singing for U.S. troops stationed there. Landau has shared the stage with the Boston Pops, George Benson, Patti Labelle, Christopher Cross, The Commodores, the Temptations, and many more.

Located amid the breathtaking mountains of West Virginia, The Greenbrier is a National Historic Landmark and world-class resort that has been welcoming guests from around the world since 1778. The natural mineral springs that drew the first guests over 235 years ago continue to lure visitors to the 11,000-acre luxury retreat today. With a guest list that includes 28 of our country's 45 Presidents, America's Resort has long been a favorite destination of royalty, celebrities, and business leaders. Today, The Greenbrier invites a new generation to come out and play.
