To really help make Cybersecurity training fun, this year's courses were designed with a TV show theme. There has never been a more fun and engaging way to learn about cybersecurity awareness."

Kevin Fream

Cybersecurity service to avoid ransomware and business loss from cybersecurity incidents. The annual training course gives financial and professional service firms the opportunity to educate their staff on new digital threats and general cybersecurity best practices. This year's Matrixforce training is the most intensive, intuitive, and comprehensive course ever!

"This year's annual training course is a game-changer," says Kevin Fream, CEO at Matrixforce. "To really help make Cybersecurity training fun, this year's courses were designed with a TV show theme, where each lesson is built as a TV channel. There has never been a more fun and engaging way to learn about cybersecurity awareness."

Here are just a few factors that make the Matrixforce 2022 training the best yet:

- An engaging format that will keep staff interested
- Education on the newest cybersecurity trends and threats
- An intuitive new video player
- Options for English, Spanish, and French captions
