

Regina Snow Mandl Named a Massachusetts Trusts and Estates “Go To Lawyer”

The Wagner Law Group partner Regina Snow Mandl has been named a Massachusetts Trusts and Estates “Go To Lawyer” by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly

BOSTON, MA, USA, January 7, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Wagner Law Group congratulates partner Regina Snow Mandl on being listed by Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly as a “Go To Lawyer” in the field of trusts and estates. The publication’s Go To Lawyers list is designed to showcase leaders in the Massachusetts legal community by practice area. The attorneys featured in the list were nominated by their colleagues and only 20 were then selected by a panel from Lawyers Weekly. The Wagner Law Group is extraordinarily proud that Ms. Mandl, leader of the firm’s trusts and estates practice area, has been included in this prominent list. “Regina is an outstanding attorney who is preeminent in the area of trusts and estates. I wish her congratulations on behalf of the firm on this well-deserved honor,” says Marcia S. Wagner, the firm’s Managing Partner.

Marcia S. Wagner, Founder and Managing Partner

Regina Snow Mandl has over 30 years of experience specializing in family law, estate planning and administration, and probate litigation. She offers clients a comprehensive estate plan, including wills, trusts, durable powers of attorney, health care proxies, HIPAA releases, living wills and declarations of homestead. When the time comes, Ms. Mandl guides her clients efficiently and sensitively through the process of probating estates. Her practice also covers a wide range of family law matters such as contested and uncontested divorces, custody disputes, removal cases, modifications, contempt actions, restraining orders, pre- and post-marital agreements, guardianships, and conservatorships. Ms.

Mandl has a particular knowledge of inherited property cases in divorce, and has handled cases involving family assets of $25,000,000 and more. She represents clients in court in contested family law and probate litigation matters, including divorces, child custody and removal cases, will contests, claims against the estate, guardianships, conservatorships, and petitions to partition real estate.

Ms. Mandl has extensive professional and community volunteer experience and recently served as Vice-Chair of the Massachusetts Clients' Security Board which is an appointment made by the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court. She is well known for her mentoring of students and younger lawyers, having developed her skills while on the boards of the American Inns of Court Foundation in Washington, D.C., and the New York University Lawyer Alumni Mentoring Program ("LAMP").

Ms. Mandl has been named annually to the prestigious Super Lawyers list since 2012, holds the rating of AV Preeminent from Martindale-Hubbell, and is a certified member of the American Academy for Certified Financial Litigators.
