Reinaldy Lagha, Indonesian MLBB player with the highest number of wins on the leaderboard year to year, said he was considering the prospect of game business management for this year.

"I usually work on a single or two accounts to climb up the world rankings. Not really ambitious about it, relax while keep grinding. The business system for now is simple: raise the rank to a global level, sell the account," said the owner of the Instagram account @naldyrei.

According to him, playing games is just part of his entertainment. ESport has grown to have more than 9.5 million fans, of whom 2.8 million live in Vietnam and 2 million in Indonesia. This sport has low risk of injury, but in a tournament, players are in groups. This means that this game still requires teamwork, strategy, speed of thinking, and agile thumbs.

"For this MLBB business, I am working on several orders for people's accounts. There is something that I really want to globalize, establishing partnerships & making new website for a large-scale game store," he added.
