The Autism Network is seeking submissions for its new logo design. Neurodivergent artists are invited to submit their artwork. The winning artist will receive a $500 honorarium.

“The Autism Network is committed to providing content for the enrichment and support of individuals who are neurodiverse; a part of that is fostering gainful employment, job skills and experience. We want our logo to reflect some of the amazing artists in the community and their right to be paid for their work.” says Shannon Penrod, President of The Autism Network.

Neurodivergent artists are encouraged to submit high resolution, scalable vector graphic images from January 14, 2022 – February 1, 2022. Submitted designs should include the words “The Autism Network” and should only include elements, images, and graphics the artist has created wholly themselves. Artists can request the complete rules and an entry form @ info@autismnetwork.com. Artwork must be submitted digitally, along with a completed entry form to info@autismnetwork.com no later than February 1, 2022. Submissions will be reviewed, and a winning design will be chosen by February 14, 2022. Late submissions will not be considered.

This contest is open to artists of all ages and abilities who identify as either being on the Autism Spectrum or as neurodiverse. Submitted work should be wholly from the artist but can be work that was accomplished with support and/or mentorship.

Collaborative works are also welcomed if all artists involved feel they meet the qualifications.
