“We are delighted that our vision was validated by the judging panel that consisted of leading blockchain industry experts” – Fanna Park, Bora Finance CEO. The competition was judged by Nebojsa Vojvodovic from IOHK, Ben Hart from M Labs, John MacPherson from Cardano Foundation, Aatash Amir from Cardstarter, Lars Brünjes from Plutus Pioneers and Ran Neuner from Crypto Banter.

For the 2 billion underbanked adults around the world, Bora Finance is a financial services company that offers a better financial ecosystem so the underbanked can access a new world of financial instruments and obtain financial inclusion. The traditional finance system was not designed for those in developing countries, Bora Finance will build a new system for those that need it most Every name has a meaning, and so has ours. Bora Finance gets its name from a Swahili translation of the word better; “Bora” translates to “Better”. Bora Finance will bring better financial inclusion, better accessibility, and better sustainability to those who require it most.

Better savings + better Insurance + better loans + better investments = A better world! Bora Finance will improve the lives of our customers by providing safe storage of value, by providing credit, and by managing risk.
