

Pure Roots Provisions a New Innovative Food Hall from Savona Restaurant

KING OF PRUSSIA, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, January 11, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pure Roots Provisions (411 Swedeland Road, 484-222-2288) is a new innovative hybrid food hall started by managing partners Chef Andrew Masciangelo and Yohann Zinier of Savona Restaurant. The concept is to have seven different restaurants cooking under one roof. This is an all-in-one solution that allows customers to get exactly what they are craving without ever leaving the comfort of their own home or office, and also bring value, quality and convenience to the table. The hybrid food hall is currently open Monday-Saturday from 11am - 8pm for curbside pickup and contact-free delivery. But, will be open 7 days, from 8am - 8pm in the coming months. Every dish is made fresh to order, then delivered by their own professional delivery team. The delivery radius is currently five miles from their location, which includes parts of Conshohocken, King of Prussia, Bryn Mawr, Villanova and Wayne. The delivery radius will expand once local road construction wraps up this spring.

Pure Roots Provisions was started to solve the many issues that come with ordering food for a family or office. Yohann Zinier father of two and Andrew Masciangelo father of five, have faced issues with finding takeout options that are not only healthy, but also have enough variety to satisfy the whole family. They also found that this is a common issue for big companies when ordering a corporate catered lunch for everyone. What makes Pure Roots different from a ghost kitchen is they have all their own chefs, and they operate all seven restaurants within one kitchen. The chefs create freshly made dishes for each order, to guarantee restaurant quality food in the comfort of your home. Their dine-in concept is coming in late summer/early fall 2022.

"We believe that the greatest meals of the world are made in a language that we can all understand," explains chef/partner Andrew Masciangelo. That's why we've made it our specialty to provide classic dishes from a whole world of cuisines, because we believe that food is the greatest unifier we have."

Pure Roots Provisions strives to use the best vendors and food distributors. They work with local vendors, such as Tlush Family Farms in Plymouth Meeting, R.L. Irwin Mushroom Company in Kennett Square, and Rothrock Hives in Huntingdon, PA. They also source their meat and seafood from some of the leading distributors in the area, Samuels & Sons and Metropolitan Meat. Their focus is to bring the freshest ingredients possible in order to provide their customers with meals they will want to feed their families.

"Our goal is to build a community and provide a one-stop shop for all of your culinary needs," adds managing partner Yohann Zinier. "We believe our community needs a reliable place to get fresh meals delivered. Unlike delivery apps, we are the whole process. Our menus are cooked by our chefs and delivered by our drivers. With Pure Roots you are guaranteed restaurant quality food in the comfort of your own home."

There are many options to accommodate all dietary restrictions and allergies. Each item on the menu denotes what is safe for many common allergens. If there is something on the menu that does not accommodate your needs, please ask. Their chefs are willing to customize any dish, if possible.

Their drivers are equipped to provide temperature regulated deliveries, so that your order arrives hot and fresh. Having their in-house drivers allows customers to track their order and communicate with the driver if there are any issues. It also allows them to enjoy a range of items while only paying one delivery fee ($3.99) and one tip, since the collective order comes from one place. With Pure Roots Provisions, the driver brings everything to you at once. No more waiting for food to arrive from different restaurants.
