Key Highlights From The Report

In September 2019, Frutarom Health, a firm engaged in healthy nutrition ingredients, launched an innovative range of organic soy isoflavones called Organic SoyLife Complex.

Three highly efficient extraction and purification methods of isoflavones are solidâ€phase extraction, Soxhlet extraction, and acceleratedâ€solvent extraction.

The growing demand for isoflavones from the personal care and cosmetics industry for the treatment of wrinkles, skin tightening, sun damage protection, and skin hydration is significantly driving the market growth.

Isoflavones are a rich source of antioxidants, which helps lower cholesterol levels, thereby protecting the cardiovascular system and reducing the risk of stroke and coronary heart disease.

There is a growing inclination amongst consumers across the globe towards healthy well-being and are conscious about their food consumption that has increased the usage of natural products like isoflavones.

Large-scale demand for isoflavones in cosmetic industries is acting as a significant driving factor in Europe's growth.
