Juliana brings her unique style into everything she does. Such a great talent and songwriter. Working with her on production has been incredible. I see great things ahead for her!”

Skidd Mills, Skiddco Music

Wande and was produced by Derek Minor. “Dollhouse” is a strong-hitting female empowerment anthem that fuses elements of different genres. An empowering genre-bending sound highly influenced by pop, hip-hop, and R&B. The high level of talent that Hale and Wande bring together in this powerful production has listeners hooked and replaying the song in their heads. Juliana is a storyteller that uses music as her form of communicating to her audience.

By the time Juliana was 8 she was already showing her natural talent and skill in writing, singing, and performing for family and friends. Today Juliana entertains fans online with her music and genuine personality. Her road to success has not been easy, however, with determination she refused to let go of her dreams. Today her dream has started to become reality as she has performed alongside Halsey & the one and only Snoop

Dogg.
