Vehicle electrification is associated with the range of electric-powered technologies used to drive the vehicle. The major source of power in vehicle electrification is the batteries, which propel the vehicle. The vehicle electrification market has witnessed significant growth over the years, owing to increase in inclination toward electrically driven technology in the automotive sector to reduce the weight, enhance fuel efficiency, and optimize output requirements.

By product type, the electric power steering segment is expected to dominate the global market, owing to its cost-effective operation and its high compatibility with IC engine, hybrid, and electric vehicles in the range of vehicles. However, the electric car motors segment is anticipated to witness lucrative growth, owing to increase in sales of electric vehicles across the globe.

The growth of the global vehicle electrification market is majorly driven by surge in adoption of fuel-efficient mobility solution along with effective performance requirements and fall in price of batteries per Kwh. However, decline in production and sales of automotive from last two year and high dependence on mechanical & hydraulic systems in existing vehicles are expected to restrain the growth of the global market during the forecast period. On the contrary, increase in need for cost-effective solutions and rise in trend of electrification of commercial vehicles and fleet are expected to provide lucrative opportunities for the expansion of the global vehicle electrification market in the near future.

Majority of the market players are involved in joint venture to gain competitive advantage in the global market. Market players are entering into long-term contracts or agreements with automotive manufacturers to retain long-term business opportunities.
