

Free Comedy Show Series Hosted by Clyde Vision Films

Underground Comics Premieres nightly the show that is taking off the career of comedians across the southeast

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, January 18, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With the winter weather forcing grocery store food shortages and school closures, many after dark tv watchers can enjoy "Underground Comics" produced by Clyde Vision Films. The show was taped during the height of the lockdown in 2020 in what appeared to be a dungeon in the studio of Edwin Myles.

Comedians of all ages entertained an exclusive audience with a no-holds barred stage. Clyde Vision Films is the producer of Underground Comics owned and operated by Jeral "JC" and Elizabeth "Elice" Clyde. Jeral Clyde II is the director of the show with the concept deriving from he and his wife desiring to provide a platform for comedians of all walks of life to express themselves through the art of success in comedy.

If you tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything.”

Mark Twain

Comedy is the art-form that never goes out of style. Many researchers even put laughter and medicine in the same category. If you haven't had a laugh in a longtime Clyde Vision Films invites you to follow the show series of Underground Comics.
