

PLUSnxt Unveils PLUS Accelerator, Complete Control of RelativityOne Environment with Expert Support

PLUS Accelerator facilitates eDiscovery self-reliance with PLUSnxt's guided expertise and partnership.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, January 18, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- PLUSnxt, leading Electronic Discovery Services and Solutions Provider, today announced the availability of PLUS Accelerator which provides organizations with the ability to independently control a RelativityOne environment with the managed support and partnership of PLUSnxt experts.

PLUSnxt Introduces Accelerator

Accelerator provides organizations with a RelativityOne enterprise license, including access to the entire technology stack, without any data minimums, long-term contracts, or costly subscription requirements. The PLUSnxt team then partners with the organization, providing training and support along the way. The goal of PLUS Accelerator is to enable clients with the power and flexibility to manage their data on their terms.

PLUS Accelerator provides the ideal situation for organizations that have internal eDiscovery capabilities but may still need support with RelativityOne.”

Gary Bendel, President & COO

PLUSnxt focuses on the capabilities that organizations already have in running their eDiscovery solutions and maintains varying levels of support to ensure they have the necessary understanding to manage their RelativityOne environment independently. Accelerator provides step-by-step guidance promoting self-sufficiency along the way with the assurance of having an expert just a phone call away.

Benefits of PLUS Accelerator include:

- Complete control of a dedicated RelativityOne instance and technology
- No long-term contracts or costly subscriptions
- No data minimum - full scalability
- Independent eDiscovery goal leading to cost savings
- Industry-leading data security
- Training protocols, customized workflows, and monthly reporting structure
- Support from dedicated account team

“PLUS Accelerator provides the ideal situation for organizations that have internal eDiscovery capabilities but may still need support with RelativityOne,” Gary Bendel, President & COO at PLUSnxt. “The service helps bridge the gap between full support and the organization independently managing their own eDiscovery needs. The key is that we’ve done away with the typical barriers to entry that organizations often encounter, such as data minimums, long-term contracts, and costly subscriptions. The service is a perfect reflection of our company vision to focus on our client’s experience and needs.”
