CHARLOTTE, NC, USA, January 18, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sonablate Corp., a world leader in minimally invasive focused ultrasound technologies, announces an exclusive distributor agreement with CanAm Scientific in association with Albwardy Investment Group for the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) territory including Bahrain, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia and the United Arab Emirates.

We look forward to partnering with CanAm Scientific and Albwardy Investment Group to bring Sonablate® HIFU to patients throughout the Middle East”

Richard Yang, CEO of Sonablate Corp.

“We look forward to partnering with CanAm Scientific and Albwardy Investment Group, both of whom have extensive track records of commercialization success in multiple industries, to bring Sonablate® HIFU to patients throughout the Middle East,” said Richard Yang, CEO of Sonablate Corp.

“CanAm Scientific and Albwardy Investment Group strongly believe that this technology will change the lives of thousands upon thousands of men in the region. The preservation of a man’s quality of life and the minimally invasive approach of the Sonablate perfectly aligns with the type of legacy CanAm Scientific wants to create in the region,” said Anthony Travonti, CEO of CanAm Scientific. “The positive response from most of the major hospitals in the region wanting to meet with us at Arab Health has been very encouraging,” added Travonti.

Additionally, Sonablate Corp. in partnership with CanAm Scientific and Albwardy Investment Group will be exhibiting and debuting the Sonablate device at Arab Health in Dubai between January 24-27, 2022. Arab Health is the leading medical equipment exhibition in the Middle East, hosting over 56,000 attendees from over 60 countries.
