

Addison Solutions Academy: A leader of corporate training is helping to bridge the generational divide in the workplace

Closing the Generational Gap in the Workplace

MARYLAND, UNITED STATES, June 6, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "In today's workforce, there are five generations. Employers who were planning mass retirements just a few years ago are now searching for ways to accommodate employees who can't afford to retire or are simply safe and comfortable enough to choose to stay at work." Addison Solutions Academy, a pioneer in corporate training, understands this unique working world dilemma and is delighted to offer a training course, The Generation Gap in the Workplace: Closing the Gap. This workshop examines the past and current state of the generational split, emphasizing recruiting and succession planning. Participants will debate whether it is more important to define each generation's true limits or the merits of individuals in the sphere of jobs. They will also look at the challenges, solutions, and approaches for bridging the generational gap.

Addison Solutions Academy

Addison Solutions Academy, a corporate training industry leader, has designed another extraordinary session suited for individuals and organizations. This workshop addresses the larger picture of the generational split in terms of human resource concerns. The objectives of the one-day course include determining where the generational divide occurs and how it affects today's workforce, identifying and using vocabulary unique to each of the current generations in the workplace, investigating organizational mechanisms for bridging gaps, and evaluating the need for and feasibility of recruitment, retention, and succession plans. Participants will have the opportunity to ask training questions and create an action plan at the end of the workshop. The workshop also includes the promise that a high-quality trainer will guide it, that the class size will be small and interactive, and that Addison Solutions Academy will supply all materials.

As corporate training evolves to fit the demands of businesses and individuals, Addison Solutions Academy is providing virtual training opportunities to enhance the skill set of our workforce. Their unique approach is built on the idea that employees are an organization's most important assets. Furthermore, Addison Solutions Academy understands the importance of employee development. Profit margins expand as motivation and productivity rise. This kind of expansion will reduce staff turnover while also attracting new employees. As Addison Solutions Academy likes to say, their innovative workshops are "Bridging skill gaps. One workshop at a time."
