

Setting Smart Objectives, training for businesses and individuals, is being launched by Addison Solutions Academy

This workshop's main objective is to look at how SMART objectives can help participants define and align their goals.

MARYLAND, UNITED STATES, August 8, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Addison Solutions Academy is pleased to announce the launch of its Setting Smart Objectives workshop. This workshop will help participants develop SMART Objectives to enhance the individual and the business.

A highly experienced subject matter expert leads participants through SMART goals to help people reach specific, measurable, attainable, realistic, and timely goals. Objectives of the workshop include understanding the importance of aligning objectives, identifying what the acronym "SMART" stands for and how to set SMART objectives, explaining how to set SMART Objectives, comprehending how business objectives align with individual objectives and recognizing the importance of common goals one-on-ones and reviews.

The workshop is designed exclusively by the professionals at Addison Solutions Academy for leaders and individuals seeking to improve mindset and work performance. Included with the workshop is an assurance that a top-quality trainer facilitates it, the class size will be small and interactive, and Addison Solutions Academy will provide all materials while managing the virtual classroom experience. Hence, participants can focus solely on the course material and obtain a practical learning experience for an immediate return on investment.

Anyone can register for the interactive, virtual workshop, guided by a subject matter expert who
