

Wheelchairs Market is Anticipated to Witness a Tremendous at a 15.0% CAGR by 2028 | Invacare Corporation

SEATTLE, UNITED STATES, UNITED STATES, January 19, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New Research Study "Wheelchairs Market 2022 analysis by Market Trends (Drivers, Constraints, Opportunities, Threats, Challenges and Investment Opportunities), Size, Share and Outlook" has been added to Coherent Market Insights.

Wheelchairs are primarily developed for the convenience of interior and outdoor locomotion for disabled people. There are several different types of wheelchairs on the market, including recliners, active wheelchairs (sports wheelchairs), transport wheelchairs, and standing wheelchairs. Manual wheelchairs and electric wheelchairs are the two most common types of wheelchairs. Because manual wheelchairs require less maintenance, they are less expensive than electric wheelchairs. Consumers have been increasingly selecting for highly personalised wheelchairs in recent years, which has created a highly favourable atmosphere for the worldwide wheelchairs market's growth. In order to expand their product portfolio, major industry players are leaning toward inorganic expansion tactics. Permobil AB, for example, acquired five companies between 2013 and 2017 in order to considerably improve its position.

Market Trends

The wheelchair market is predicted to grow rapidly in the near future, owing to an increase in the geriatric population and a steady increase in lower limb amputation instances due to different impairments such as diabetes and vascular illnesses. According to a 2014 estimate from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), around 30.0 million people in the United States have been diagnosed with diabetes, with an additional 8.0 million people living with undiagnosed diabetes.

According to a 2017 report published by the European Journal Aerzteblatt-international.de, around 100,000 lower limb amputations were performed due to trauma, intoxication, musculoskeletal disease, skin diseases, and subcutaneous tissue or neoplasia, resulting in disability, which is expected to favour the wheelchair market in the near future.
