

Military Times Foundation Seeks Service Members of the Year Nominations

Honorees receive an experience of a lifetime in Washington, D.C. and recognition from top Pentagon and Capitol Hill leaders.

BEVERLY HILLS, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, January 20, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Military Times Foundation, the non-profit affiliate of Military Times today announced the opening of nominations for Military Times Service Members of the Year (SMOY) awards.

Honorees will enjoy an experience of a lifetime in Washington, D.C. that will culminate in an awards ceremony attended by top Pentagon and congressional leaders. For more than 20 years, SMOY has honored a Soldier, Marine, Sailor, Airman and Coast Guardsman who display a high level of professionalism, concern for fellow service members and commitment to community service.

Nominations may be submitted by parents, spouses, fellow service members, supervisors and commanding officers -- making this grassroots award unique from any other awards given to members of our Armed Forces. In 2018, the Veteran of the Year award was introduced to recognize those who continue to live lives of impact outside of the service.

"Year after year, Military Times Service Members of the Year honors heroes whose accomplishments are awe-inspiring," said Mike Gruss, editor-in-chief of Military Times. "The winners are recognized not only for their exemplary service in the military, but for how they are improving their community."

Winners are selected from nominations around the world. The honorees are also recognized across Military Times media portfolio which includes Army Times, Marine Corps Times, Navy Times and Air Force Times.

To submit a nomination, complete this form. Nominations close February 28, 2022 .
